

NYIIFVF FILM SCHEDULE

THIS SCHEDULE IS ALSO AVAILABLE ONLINE AT...WWW.NYFILMVIDEO.COM

10 min

On his one-year anniversary, a mortician - broken by the tragic death of his newborn child and subsequent marital separation - is sidetracked from delivering divorce papers to his estranged wife by a quirky couple having a baby.

Silent Warrior

Genre: Drama

28 min

Lost Track

Toy piano and other characters watch and guide the robot throughout its journey. The accompanying soundtrack includes ceremonial music from Central Africa and Brazil.

One Nation Under

Director: Sandi Higgins

Genre: Experimental

10 min

To what do we pledge our allegiance? ONE NATION UNDER is a haunting, poetic meditation on God and Government from the context of post 9/11 New York City.

Ombre di Vita

Director: Salvatore Tolve

Genre: Experimental

11 min

Before judging a person for how they appear, try to witness their struggles in life for a day.

Smoke and Moonlight

Director: Michael Pepe

Genre: Non-fiction/Video Essay

12 min

A quasi philosophical exploration about the joy, responsibility, and love.

Secrets From Somewhere

Director: L. Steven Stanley

Genre: Drama

104 min

This film explores the deliberate destruction of a relationship, as well as the intrigue and psychic and mystic overtones between a beautiful model and a photographer who is already married.

10:05 PM

The Smoking Section

Director: Chris Pozzebon

Genre: Comedy

8 min

"A short film about cocky high school guys who smoke, chew, and chirp each other. There's going to be a fight."

Here With Me

Director: Kevin Murphy

Genre: Drama

12 min

A divorced father and his recalcitrant teenage son try to

8:00 PM

FATE

Director: SHABBIR MOTIWAL and HARISH

Genre: Public Service

1 min

CAN I STILL CHANGE MY FATE

Will Work For Food

Director: Jay Johnson

Genre: Suspense/Caper/Con

100 min

Billy, a homeless man, is offered a cheeseburger to wash the car of Kurt, a con-man. Kurt offers Billy a steak dinner